

The Sun AND NEW YORK HERALD

SECTION 5 EIGHT PAGES

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, AUGUST 29, 1920.

Copyright, 1920, by Herald Corporation.

ROTOGRAPHIC SECTION

Planning the downfall of the Bolshevik forces in Poland. Gen. Haller (at left) in command of the army north of Warsaw and Gen. Henrys of the French army, settling a question of strategy.

Photo, Underwood & Underwood.

Frank Foss of the Chicago A. A., former Cornell star, who made a world's record of 13 feet 5 1/8 inches in the pole vault at the Olympic games.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Frank Loomis, another world's record maker at the Olympic games. This Chicago A. A. man did the 400 meter hurdle in 54 seconds.

© International.

Marshal Foch in a moment of relaxation at the Entente Conference at Lympe, where matters of world importance were considered.

From Photopress.

Principals in the momentous Lympe Conference outside Sir Philip Sassoon's home. Picture shows the British and French Premiers with their naval and military advisers.

Copyright, Farrington

A beauty who is the sensation of the hour in London society and at the famous French watering place, Deauville. She is the Maharanee of Kapurthala. The picture was taken on the beach.

Copyright, Farrington.

Beautiful stepdaughter of Lady Ribblesdale, formerly Mrs. Ava Willing Astor. She is Lady Lovat and her husband's barony dates to 1458.

Copyright, Bertram Park.

Aviators who sailed in La Lorraine last week to take part in the Gordon Bennett cup race next month. Left to right: Charles D. Case, Arthur Thurston, T. J. Johnston, W. J. Irwin and Roland Rohlf.

Copyright, Keystone View.